FINE MAIDEN TRIP.

Sch. Harry A. Nickerson Has 400 Barrels Salt Mackerel.

Fresh Fish Are Still Coming From Nova Scotia.

Sch. Harry A. Nickerson of Boothbay Harbor, Capt. West, is at this port this morning from her maiden trip, with a big fare of 400 barrels of salt mackerel. Capt. West reports getting 200 barrels of his trip on Georges and the rest in the Bay of Fundy, 50 miles southeast from Baker's Island, (Mt. Desert.) The fish were in small schools, the last haul being made Sunday. Four other seiners, one of them sch. M. S. Ayer, were there. The fare sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Co. at $11.50 per barrel, which means a big start for Capt. West and the new craft.

Last year the fish from the Bay of Fundy were the best quality, but the fish brought from there thus far this season are not as fine quality as those taken recently on Georges.

The Nova Scotia fishermen are still reaping a harvest on mackerel. Today 800 barrels of fresh ones are due to arrive from there at Boston.

The fare of sch. Ralph F. Hodgdon sold to Stanwood & Co. at $11 per barrel for rimmed and $10.50 for plain.

A few tinker mackerel are at Boston today, selling for three cents apiece.

Good Stock.

Sch. Arbutus, Capt. John J. Carroll, stocked $2814 as the result of her recent shacking trip, the crew sharing $74.

Sch. Grayling, Capt. Reuben Cameron, stocked $4393 as the result of her recent seining trip, the crew sharing $100.16.

BIG FARE.

Sch. Victor Has 500 Bbls. Mackerel at Boston.

Fish Were Taken on Southeast Part of Georges.

Sch. Victor, Capt. John W. McFarland, arrived at T wharf, Boston, last evening with one of the finest mackerel fares of the season, 300 barrels of salt mackerel and 200 barrels of fresh mackerel. The latter sold this morning at 6 1-2 cents apiece.

Capt. McFarland reports getting most of his trip on Georges, 50 miles southeast of the Culivator. About 25 sail of seiners were there. The captain says that there were lots of mackerel there and in good schools, but they were very wild, so wild in fact that it was almost impossible to catch them. Some of the fleet made hauls now and then, but some, less fortunate, had been banging away at the schools for over 10 days and had not stopped a fish.

The salt fish of the Victor were taken last Friday and Saturday, while the fresh part of the fare has been picked up since. Capt. McFarland was not only fortunate in getting good hauls on Georges, but his good fortune stayed with him, for while bound to market with 450 barrels, he fell in with fish between Race Point and Plymouth and made a 50 barrel haul, just enough to put the fare up to 500 barrels.

Capt. McFarland has, as usual, done big work this season and is probably next to sch. Helen Miller Gould on stock.

The fare of sch. Marguerite Haskins sold to William H. Jordan.
